The Association must have at least 5 members.

- 10.2 The Committee must notify the applicant in writing of its decision as soon as practicable after the decision is made.

Division 2—Disciplinary action

19 Grounds for taking disciplinary action

The Association may take disciplinary action against a member in accordance with this Division if it is determined that the member:

- (c) ceased to actively race karts; or
- (d) refuses to support the purposes of the Association; or
- (e) has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the Association.

20 Disciplinary subcommittee

20.1 If the Committee is satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for taking disciplinary action against a member, the Committee must appoint a disciplinary subcommittee to hear the matter and determine what action, if any, to take against the member.

20.2 The members of the disciplinary subcommittee:

- (a) may be Committee members, members of the Association or anyone else; but
- (b) must not be biased against, or in favour of, the member concerned.

21 Notice to member

21.1 Before disciplinary action is taken against a member, the Secretary must give written notice to the member:

- (a) stating that the Association proposes to take disciplinary action against the member; and
- (b) stating the grounds for the proposed disciplinary action; and
- (c) specifying the date, place and time of the meeting at which the disciplinary subcommittee intends to consider the disciplinary action (the disciplinary meeting); and
- (d) advising the member that he or she may do one or both of the following:
 - (i) attend the disciplinary meeting and address the disciplinary subcommittee at that meeting;
 - (ii) give a written statement to the disciplinary subcommittee at any time before the disciplinary meeting; and

- (e) setting out the member's appeal rights under rule 23.
- 21.2 The notice must be given no earlier than 28 days, and no later than 14 days, before the disciplinary meeting is held.

22 Decision of subcommittee

- 22.1 At the disciplinary meeting, the disciplinary subcommittee must:
 - (a) give the member an opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) consider any written statement submitted by the member.
- 22.2 After complying with subrule 22.1, the disciplinary subcommittee may:
 - (a) take no further action against the member; or
 - (b) subject to subrule 22.3:
 - (i) reprimand the member; or
 - (ii) suspend the membership rights of the member for a specified period; or
 - (iii) expel the member from the Association.
- 22.3 The disciplinary subcommittee may not fine the member.
- 22.4 The suspension of membership rights or the expulsion of a member by the disciplinary subcommittee under this rule takes effect immediately after the vote is passed.

23 Appeal rights

- 23.1 A person whose membership rights have been suspended or who has been expelled from the Association under rule 22 may give notice to the effect that he or she wishes to appeal against the suspension or expulsion.
- 23.2 The notice must be in writing and given:
 - (a) to the disciplinary subcommittee immediately after the vote to suspend or expel the person is taken; or
 - (b) to the Secretary not later than 48 hours after the vote.
- 23.3 If a person has given notice under subrule 23.2, a disciplinary appeal meeting must be convened by the Committee as soon as practicable, but in any event not later than 21 days, after the notice is received.
- 23.4 Notice of the disciplinary appeal meeting must be given to each member of the Association who is entitled to vote as soon as practicable and must—
 - (a) specify the date, time and place of the meeting; and
 - (b) State:
 - (i) the name of the person against whom the disciplinary action has been taken; and
 - (ii) the grounds for taking that action; and
 - (iii) that at the disciplinary appeal meeting the members present must vote on whether the decision to suspend or expel the person should be upheld or revoked.

24 Conduct of disciplinary appeal meeting

- 24.1 At a disciplinary appeal meeting:
 - (a) no business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted; and
 - (b) the Committee must state the grounds for suspending or expelling the member and the reasons for taking that action; and
 - (c) the person whose membership has been suspended or who has been expelled must be given an opportunity to be heard.

- 24.2 After complying with subrule 24.1, the members present and entitled to vote at the meeting must vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the decision to suspend or expel the person should be upheld or revoked.
- 24.3 A member may not vote by proxy at the meeting.
- 24.4 The decision is upheld if not less than three quarters of the members voting at the meeting vote in favour of the decision.

Division 3—Grievance procedure

25 Application

- 25.1 The grievance procedure set out in this Division applies to disputes under these Rules between:
- (a) a member and another member;
 - (b) a member and the Committee;
 - (c) a member and the Association.
- 25.2 A member must not initiate a grievance procedure in relation to a matter that is the subject of a disciplinary procedure until the disciplinary procedure has been completed.

26 Parties must attempt to resolve the dispute

The parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days of the dispute coming to the attention of each party.

27 Appointment of mediator

- 27.1 If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within the time required by rule 26, the parties must within 10 days:
- (a) notify the Committee of the dispute; and
 - (b) agree to or request the appointment of a mediator; and
 - (c) attempt in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation.
- 27.2 The mediator must be:
- (a) a person chosen by agreement between the parties; or
 - (b) in the absence of agreement:
 - (i) if the dispute is between a member and another member — a person appointed by the Committee; or
 - (ii) if the dispute is between a member and the Committee or the Association — a person appointed or employed by the Dispute Settlement Centre of Victoria.
- 27.3 A mediator appointed by the Committee may be a member or former member of the Association but in any case must not be a person who:
- (a) has a personal interest in the dispute; or
 - (b) is biased in favour of or against any party.

28 Mediation process

- 28.1 The mediator to the dispute, in conducting the mediation, must:
- (a) give each party every opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party; and
 - (c) ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties throughout the mediation process.
- 28.2 The mediator must not determine the dispute.

29 Failure to resolve dispute by mediation

If the mediation process does not resolve the dispute, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise at law.

PART 4—GENERAL MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

30 Annual general meetings

30.1 The Committee must convene an annual general meeting of the Association to be held within 5 months after the end of each financial year.

30.2 Despite subrule 30.1, the Association may hold its first annual general meeting at any time within 18 months after its incorporation.

30.3 The Committee may determine the date, time, and place of the annual general meeting.

30.4 The ordinary business of the annual general meeting is as follows:

- (a) to confirm the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any special general meeting held since then;
- (b) to receive and consider:
 - (i) the annual report of the Committee on the activities of the Association during the preceding financial year; and
 - (ii) the financial statements of the Association for the preceding financial year submitted by the Committee in accordance with Part 7 of the Act;
- (c) to elect the members of the Committee;
- (d) to confirm or vary the amounts (if any) of the annual subscription and joining fee.

30.5 The annual general meeting may also conduct any other business of which notice has been given in accordance with these Rules.

31 Special general meetings

31.1 Any general meeting of the Association, other than an annual general meeting or a disciplinary appeal meeting, is a special general meeting.

31.2 The Committee may convene a special general meeting whenever it thinks fit.

31.3 No business other than that set out in the notice under rule 33 may be conducted at the meeting.

Note

General business may be considered at the meeting if it is included as an item for consideration in the notice under rule 33 and the majority of members at the meeting agree.

32 Special general meeting held at request of members

32.1 The Committee must convene a special general meeting if a request to do so is made in accordance with subrule 32.2 by at least 10% of the total number of members.

32.2 A request for a special general meeting must:

- (a) be in writing; and
- (b) state the business to be considered at the meeting and any resolutions to be proposed; and
- (c) include the names and signatures of the members requesting the meeting; and
- (d) be given to the Secretary.

- 32.3 If the Committee does not convene a special general meeting within one month after the date on which the request is made, the members making the request (or any of them) may convene the special general meeting.
- 32.4 A special general meeting convened by members under subrule 32.3:
- (a) must be held within 3 months after the date on which the original request was made; and
 - (b) may only consider the business stated in that request.
- 32.5 The Association must reimburse all reasonable expenses incurred by the members convening a special general meeting under subrule 32.3.

33 Notice of general meetings

- 33.1 The Secretary (or, in the case of a special general meeting convened under rule 32.3, the members convening the meeting) must give to each member of the Association:
- (a) at least 21 days' notice of a general meeting if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting; or
 - (b) at least 14 days' notice of a general meeting in any other case.
- 33.2 The notice must:
- (a) specify the date, time, and place of the meeting; and
 - (b) indicate the general nature of each item of business to be considered at the meeting; and
 - (c) if a special resolution is to be proposed:
 - (i) state in full the proposed resolution; and
 - (ii) state the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution; and
 - (d) comply with rule 34.5.
- 33.3 This rule does not apply to a disciplinary appeal meeting.

Note

Rule 23.4 sets out the requirements for notice of a disciplinary appeal meeting.

34 Proxies

- 34.1 A member may only appoint one other member as his or her proxy to vote and speak on his or her behalf at a general meeting other than at a disciplinary appeal meeting.
- 34.2 The appointment of a proxy must be in writing and signed by the member making the appointment.
- 34.3 The member appointing the proxy may give specific directions as to how the proxy is to vote on his or her behalf, otherwise the proxy may vote on behalf of the member in any matter as he or she sees fit.
- 34.4 If the Committee has approved a form for the appointment of a proxy, the member may use any other form that clearly identifies the person appointed as the member's proxy and that has been signed by the member.
- 34.5 Notice of a general meeting given to a member under rule 33 must:
- (a) state that the member may appoint another member as a proxy for the meeting; and
 - (b) include a copy of any form that the Committee has approved for the appointment of a proxy.
- 34.6 A form appointing a proxy must be given to the Chairperson of the meeting before or at the commencement of the meeting.

34.7 A form appointing a proxy sent by post or electronically is of no effect unless it is received by the Association no later than 24 hours before the commencement of the meeting.

35 Use of technology

35.1 A member not physically present at a general meeting may be permitted to participate in the meeting by the use of technology that allows that member and the members present at the meeting to clearly and simultaneously communicate with each other.

35.2 For the purposes of this Part, a member participating in a general meeting as permitted under subrule 35.1 is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person.

35.3 For the avoidance of doubt, all meetings, whether committee or general can be held electronically and all votes or ballots required to be held may be done via circulating email, where each person entitled to vote does vote.

36 Quorum at general meetings

36.1 No business may be conducted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members is present.

36.2 The quorum for a general meeting is the presence (physically, by proxy or as allowed under rule 35) of 10% of the members entitled to vote.

36.3 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the notified commencement time of a general meeting:

(a) in the case of a meeting convened by, or at the request of, members under rule 32 — the meeting must be dissolved;

Note

If a meeting convened by, or at the request of, members is dissolved under this subrule, the business that was to have been considered at the meeting is taken to have been dealt with. If members wish to have the business reconsidered at another special meeting, the members must make a new request under rule 32.

(b) in any other case:

(i) the meeting must be adjourned to a date not more than 21 days after the adjournment; and

(ii) notice of the date, time, and place to which the meeting is adjourned must be given at the meeting and confirmed by written notice given to all members as soon as practicable after the meeting.

36.4 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time to which a general meeting has been adjourned under subrule 36.3(b), the members present at the meeting (if not fewer than 3) may proceed with the business of the meeting as if a quorum were present.

37 Adjournment of general meeting

37.1 The Chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of a majority of members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting to another time at the same place or at another place.

37.2 Without limiting subrule 37.1, a meeting may be adjourned:

(a) if there is insufficient time to deal with the business at hand; or

(b) to give the members more time to consider an item of business.

Example

The members may wish to have more time to examine the financial statements submitted by the Committee at an annual general meeting.

37.3 No business may be conducted on the resumption of an adjourned meeting other than the business that remained unfinished when the meeting was adjourned.

37.4 Notice of the adjournment of a meeting under this rule is not required unless the meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, in which case notice of the meeting must be given in accordance with rule 33.

38 Voting at general meeting

38.1 On any question arising at a general meeting:

- (a) subject to subrule 38.3, each member who is entitled to vote has one vote; and
- (b) members may vote personally or by proxy; and
- (c) except in the case of a special resolution, the question must be decided on a majority of votes.

38.2 If votes are divided equally on a question, the Chairperson of the meeting has a second or casting vote.

38.3 If the question is whether or not to confirm the minutes of a previous meeting, only members who were present at that meeting may vote.

38.4 This rule does not apply to a vote at a disciplinary appeal meeting conducted under rule 24.

39 Special resolutions

A special resolution is passed if not less than three quarters of the members voting at a general meeting (whether in person or by proxy) vote in favour of the resolution.

Note

In addition to certain matters specified in the Act, a special resolution is required:

- (a) to remove a committee member from office;
- (b) to alter these Rules, including changing the name or any of the purposes of the Association.

40 Determining whether resolution carried

40.1 Subject to subsection 40.2, the Chairperson of a general meeting may, on the basis of a show of hands, declare that a resolution has been:

- (a) carried; or
- (b) carried unanimously; or
- (c) carried by a particular majority; or
- (d) lost,

and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting is conclusive proof of that fact.

40.2 If a poll (where votes are cast in writing) is demanded by three or more members on any question:

- (a) the poll must be taken at the meeting in the manner determined by the Chairperson of the meeting; and
- (b) the Chairperson must declare the result of the resolution on the basis of the poll.

40.3 A poll demanded on the election of the Chairperson or on a question of an adjournment must be taken immediately.

40.4 A poll demanded on any other question must be taken before the close of the meeting at a time determined by the Chairperson.

41 Minutes of general meeting

41.1 The Committee must ensure that minutes are taken and kept of each general meeting.

41.2 The minutes must record the business considered at the meeting, any resolution on which a vote is taken and the result of the vote.

- 41.3 In addition, the minutes of each annual general meeting must include:
- (a) the names of the members attending the meeting; and
 - (b) proxy forms given to the Chairperson of the meeting under rule 34.6; and
 - (c) the financial statements submitted to the members in accordance with rule 30.4(b)(ii); and
 - (d) the certificate signed by two committee members certifying that the financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the RKA; and

Division 3—Election of Committee members and tenure of office

49 Who is eligible to be a Committee member

A member is eligible to be elected or appointed as a committee member if the member:

- (a) is 18 years or over; and
- (b) is entitled to vote at a general meeting.

50 Positions to be declared vacant

50.1 This rule applies to:

- (a) the first annual general meeting of RKA after its incorporation; or
- (b) any subsequent annual general meeting of RKA, after the annual report and financial statements of RKA have been received.

50.2 The Chairperson of the meeting must declare all positions on the Committee vacant and hold elections for those positions in accordance with rules 51 to 54.

51 Nominations

51.1 Prior to the election of each position, the Chairperson of the meeting must call for nominations to fill that position.

51.2 An eligible member of RKA may:

- (a) nominate himself or herself; or
- (b) with the member's consent, be nominated by another member.

51.3 A member who is nominated for a position and fails to be elected to that position may be nominated for any other position for which an election is yet to be held.

52 Election of President etc.

52.1 At the annual general meeting, separate elections must be held for each of the following positions:

- (a) President;
- (b) Vice President;
- (c) Secretary;
- (d) Treasurer.

52.2 If only one member is nominated for the position, the Chairperson of the meeting must declare the member elected to the position.

52.3 If more than one member is nominated, a ballot must be held in accordance with rule 54.

52.4 On his or her election, the new President may take over as Chairperson of the meeting.

53 Election of ordinary members

53.2 A single election may be held to fill all of those positions.

53.3 If the number of members nominated for the position of ordinary committee member is less than or equal to the number to be elected, the Chairperson of the meeting must declare each of those members to be elected to the position.

53.4 If the number of members nominated exceeds the number to be elected, a ballot must be held in accordance with rule 54.

54 Ballot

54.1 If a ballot is required for the election for a position, the Chairperson of the meeting must appoint a member to act as returning officer to conduct the ballot.

54.2 The returning officer must not be a member nominated for the position.

- (b) each proxy appointed by a member.

Example

54.7 If the ballot is for more than one position:

- (a) the voter must write on the ballot paper the name of each candidate for whom they wish to vote;
- (b) the voter must not write the names of more candidates than the number to be elected.

54.8 Ballot papers that do not comply with subrule 54.7(b) are not to be counted.

54.9 Each ballot paper on which the name of a candidate has been written counts as one vote for that candidate.

54.10 The returning officer must declare elected the candidate or, in the case of an election for more than one position, the candidates who received the most votes.

54.11 If the returning officer is unable to declare the result of an election under subrule 54.10 because 2 or more candidates received the same number of votes, the returning officer must:

- (a) conduct a further election for the position in accordance with subrules 54.4 to 54.10 to decide which of those candidates is to be elected; or

 - (b) must not vote on the matter.

Note

Under section 81(3) of the Act, if there are insufficient committee members to form a quorum because a member who has a material personal interest is disqualified from voting on a matter, a general meeting may be called to deal with the matter.

- 65.3 This rule does not apply to a material personal interest:
- (a) that exists only because the member belongs to a class of persons for whose benefit the Association is established; or
